Selectmen's Meeting

COASTAL ZONE OPTIMISM

Ralph Eustis and Priscilla Hathaway conferred with Selectmen William Hubbard and John DeCosta on the progress of the Coastal Zone conferences they have attended. They said that there is an unusual willingness on the part of the State to listen to local representatives and allow their suggestions on local control to be made part of the coastal zoning plans. Mr. Eustis said that, in his opinion, the plan emerging from these conferences would be good for the town. He said the result would be a greatly simplified process for builders would be required to obtain only one clearance rather than apply to a whole series of boards for permits to build. He said that the local representatives have made many suggestions regarding local control and have had them adopted. Eustis showed Selectmen the resulting passages regarding have both actively participated in the plan and seem satisfied so far with the results. Rochester could have participated because of the river watershed but did not send representation according to Eustis but he felt that river interests had been protected as to local control. Both Eustis and Mrs. Hathaway expressed optimism as to the result which they had not anticipated when they started to represent the town in the coastal zone conferences.

HEARING ON SEWER MAIN

A hearing will be held in the Conference Room on October 26th to discuss the use of the old railroad bed for force main to Fairhaven.

BARLOW CEMETERY

Miss Fox has suggested that the Board of Selectmen contact Mrs. Luen Johnson of the Historical Society to ascertain whether or not the Historical Society will undertake the responsibility of the matter concerning the Barlow Cemetery.

This cemetery, one of the town's oldest, has been damaged by vandals and the town is concerned with records of the graves and replacement of stones, if possible. The Selectmen are also inquiring about public access to the grounds. It has been stated that old right of way exists from Acushnet Road

WATER DEPT. SEEKS OPINION TO CUT COSTS
Letters have been sent out by Water Department Superintendent Charles Morgan to a cross section of Mattapoisett homeowners. Mr. Morgan seeks an opinion from these people as to whether they would be willing to read their own water meter in order to continue water department operation with the present work force. The letter reads in part: This is an appeal for help. Your Town Owned Water Utility is making every effort to hold down costs and water rates during these inflationary times in this rapidly growing community. Personnel costs represent a major part of our operating budget, and demands on our available manpower increase with each new water service. If we are to maintain adequate service to our customers and properly maintain the water system we must either increase the number of employees or find ways in which we can accomplish more with our present work force in the same amount of time, which leads us to the proposal contained in the following paragraph.

Would you, in the interest of economy and as an owner and occupant of your own home, be willing to read your own water meter, record it on a stamped, self-addressed form post card furnished by this Department, and mail it to us? We would contact you for a reading check in the event one received appeared questionable and we would gladly assist anyone having difficulty in reading his meter.

Mr. Morgan will compile the result of this poll for publication when complete.

and affiliated with the Standard-Times. Everyone enjoys an evening with John and we're sure you will too.

The Judges are Mrs. Clara Morgan, Mr. John Pandolfi, Mrs. Claire Keene, and Mr. Anthony "Sonny" Costa.

Clara Morgan, as many know, is a first grade teacher at Center School, having taught there for over 30 years. She has promised to judge fairly and squarely, but will the urge to make some of our acts "sit in the corner" or "take out the erasers" be too great for even Mrs. Morgan.

John Pandolfi will be a familiar stage personality as he is conductor of the Tri-County Symphonic Band and has led our Band Concerts each summer for some time. If you have ever had the pleasure of attending one of John Pandolfi's spring concerts you know that he is an expert in obstreperous audience control. But the question is - What do you do with an obstreperous cast?

The tickets have arrived for this family entertainment rated GP. They are on sale at the following locations: in Fairhaven at Fairhaven Pharmacy, the BPM, and Olde Oxford Farms; in Mattapoisett, at the Mattapoisett Pharmacy, the Seaport Pharmacy, The Toy Box, Romeo's, and the Bowling Alley.

Winter library hours are: Monday 2-8, Wednesday 10-8, Friday 2-8, and Saturday 1-5.

We have added another truck to our fleet expressly for the Marion, Wareham & Rochester area residents. We have had such an increase in calls that we have decided to install a direct, toll-free "Hot Line" for these customers. We have our plumber, Chet, who is a local resident and knows the area well. He will have a well-stocked supply of plumbing needs right at hand.

Are you disappointed to find yourself waiting two days for a plumber, then have him arrive with a helper to carry the tool box, and receive a bill for two men? We pride ourselves on sending one man on service calls.

We take good care of our old customers; it is new customers we are looking for.

Eastern Europe Lecture

ART TEACHER TO SPEAK ON HOLOCAUST

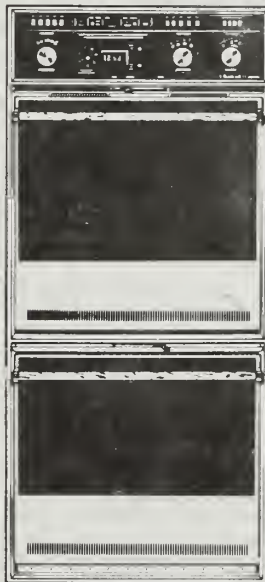

On October 20 the Jewish Professional Women's Club will present Luice McCormack in an art and music program concerning the Holocaust in Eastern Europe.

The lecture and exhibition will span the years between Kristallnacht (Night of Broken Glass) in Berlin and the liberation of the concentration camps in 1945.

Ms. McCormack, once a teacher of displaced persons after the war, is the daughter of Josef Moncevitich, instrumental in the work of the Russian War Relief Committee which brought extensive aid to the civilian population of Stalingrad during World War II. The speaker has completed many onsite drawings at Dachau, Lidice, Warsaw Ghetto and Sachgenhausen and several of those will be shown that evening.

A program of Israeli and Hassidic music will follow the lecture. Ms. McCormack, who studied at the New England Conservatory of Music, has played at folk festivals in Eastern Europe, and worked in the summer of 1976 with a group from Tel Aviv.

Judges Mrs. Joseph Aleardi and Mrs. Richard Waterhouse hasten to congratulate all the participants for their thoughtful and clever ideas. Woman's Club wishes all newspaper carriers could be winners in the contest, but it is certainly true that you will be a winner if you wear the vest! Prizes will be awarded on October 20.

Continue to be on the alert for the roving photographer looking for you wearing your vest. This week's Carrier-in-the Spotlight is Ronald Lopes of 28 Driscoll Lane.

Ron is a ninth grader at O.R.R. High School and most enjoys football and boating. He has been a paper carrier for a year and a half and spends about 10 hours a week serving over 50 customers. He says the biggest problem is that dogs chase you - he was even bitten on the ankle by a white schnauzer but they're friends now. Ron believes in the vest, especially in bad weather. Last year he even wore a hunting vest. He says people really do notice you more, especially the girls!

Mattapoisett Woman's Club Council on Aging

FINE ARTS TRIP

On Thursday, October 27, the Fine Arts Group of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club will tour the Martha Coggeshall Memorial in Fairhaven. The group will convene at 9:30 A.M. at the Congregational Church and return there by noon. Travel will be by private cars and no expenses are involved. Guests are cordially invited. If possible, notify Margaret Smith at 758-2426 if you plan to attend or just show up that morning.

MATTAPOISETT

All Minibus trips for October were listed in the ad in the Presto Press issue of September 28. The October 25 (Tuesday) trip of the big bus to the Grist Mill in Seekonk for luncheon and then to the Warwick Mall was also listed, and the ad in the Presto Press of October 5 gave the three choices and prices of the luncheon. We set a final date for reservations for this trip as well as payments for the luncheon or your choice as Wednesday, October 19. Please remember that all reservations for trips are to be made by calling at or phoning the Town Hall on Monday or Wednesday between the hours of 10:00 A.M. and 12:00 Noon. Because of the Monday holiday and the shortness of time left for reservations, we are asking the Selectmen's secretary to accept reservations and money Wednesday afternoon, October 19th. If the bus is not filled by that time, we will accept reservations of Seniors from nearby towns. This big bus will leave the Legion Hall on Depot Street at 11 o'clock.

EVENING OF TRADITIONAL IRISH MUSIC

The Eisteddfod - Ceilidh Committee of South-eastern Massachusetts University will present an evening of traditional Irish music on Friday, October 21, at 8 P.M. in the SMU auditorium.

Appearing on the program will be a group of Irish musicians called De Dannann, which originally came to the United States at the invitation of the Smithsonian Institute Folk Life Festival and the American Irish Bicentennial Committee; Seamus Connolly, All-Ireland champion fiddler; and Joe Heaney, the singer from Galway County, Ireland, who won the 1977 Eisteddfod Award.

The De Dannann group takes its name from the Tuatha De Dannann, a mythical race supposed to have inhabited Ireland in pre-Celtic times. "Each member of the group has an impressive reputation as an individual performer," says Prof. Howard Glasser, SMU Eisteddfod Director, "and their unique group sound has made De Dannann one of the leading Irish bands both at home and abroad."

The group plays the bodhran goatskin tambourine, bones, banjo, melodeon, tin whistle, bouzouki, mandolin, fiddle, harmonica, flute, harmonium, guitar, and cello mandola. "The lively sounds should provide a most enter-

The Audettes would much rather follow our red brick path.

Both Al and Kathy Audette say they like banking with us because of the many, many services we provide and the way we treat them.

Whether they bank inside, or outside at one of our drive-up windows, doesn't matter. The Audettes, like so many of our customers, would rather take a few minutes longer to drive to our place than bank at several others closer to home.

The way we see it — just like the Audettes of Fairhaven — there are banks and there is our bank.

Even the younger members of the family — Greg and Nicole — like banking with us.
